The Tennessee Higher Education Commission coordinates two systems of higher education, the University of Tennessee institutions governed by the University of Tennessee Board of Trustees, and the state universities, community colleges and technology centers governed by the Tennessee Board of Regents. There are currently nine public universities, two special purpose institutes, 14 two-year institutions, and 27 technology centers in Tennessee that serve over 200,000 students. Independent institutions are coordinated by the Tennessee Independent Colleges and Universities. The state and federal student financial aid programs are administered by the Tennessee Student Assistance Corporation. Over 100 languages are offered to schools, businesses and individuals by the Tennessee Foreign Language Institute.

Mission

The Tennessee Higher Education Commission (THEC) was created in 1967 by the Tennessee General Assembly (TCA 49-7-202) for the purpose of coordinating and supporting the efforts of post-secondary institutions in the State of Tennessee. One of its statutory requirements is to create a master plan for the development of public higher education in Tennessee.

The Misssion for Tennessee's twenty-first century system of higher education is to:

- Elevate the overall educational attainment of citizens in the State through increased accessibility to mission-focused institutions, which deliver education services on campus, as well as through a planned network of off-campus instruction, and
- Prepare citizens responsibly for success in the new century by providing high quality teaching and research in an environment that serves the needs of its consumers.

The Condition of Higher Education in Tennessee presents a series of goals for Tennessee higher education that will facilitate informed decision making and re-focus the efforts of the state's institutions on issues of greatest need. These goals were developed in concert with the University of Tennessee system and the Tennessee Board of Regents, as well as the independent colleges and universities. The data below provides a summary of the benchmarks and performance for the 2002-2003 report.

The Condition of Higher Education in Tennessee

ENROLLMENT

Where do we stand?

The percentage of college age persons that are enrolled in the state of Tennessee is well below that of the nation.

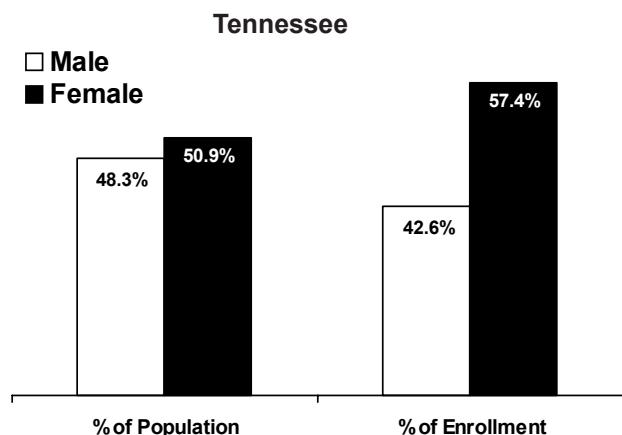

Of the students attending a higher education institution . . .

Tennessee has the largest percentage of students attending private institutions in the SREB region and is in the top 20, nationally.

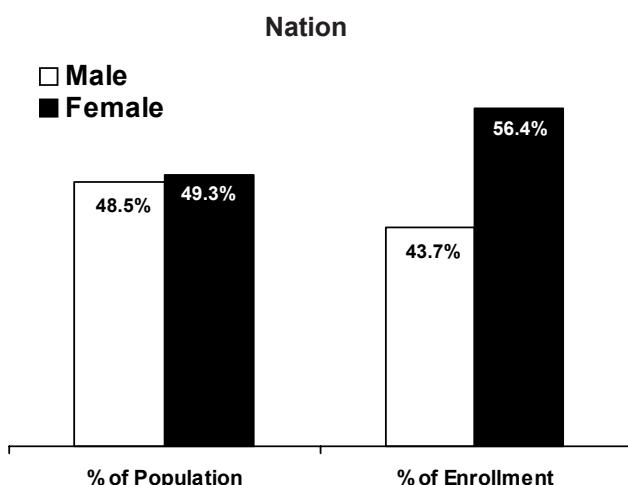

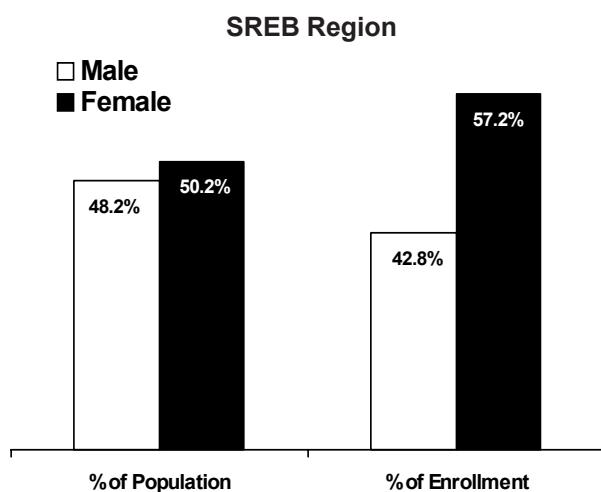

■ Public ■ Private

In Tennessee, the Region and Nation . . .

More than 57% of college enrollment is made up of women, while women only make up roughly 50% of the overall population.

Percent Enrollment

Undergraduate      Professional      Graduate

	Undergraduate	Professional	Graduate
TN	87.1%	2.0%	10.9%
SREB	87.4%	1.8%	10.7%
NATION	86.4%	1.8%	11.8%

In 2000, a person with a bachelor's degree made over $17,000 more a year, on average, than someone with only a high school degree and nearly $25,000 more than a person with no high school degree.

Bachelor's Degrees Awarded per 100 Undergraduates

We're on the right track,
HOWEVER

In Measuring Up 2002: The State-by-State Report Card for Higher Education, the State of Tennessee received a 'D' in the following areas:

- Adults with Bachelor's Degree or Higher
- Increased Income from Bachelor's Degree
- Increased Income from some College
- Population Voting
- Charitable Contributions
- Quantitative Literacy
- Prose Literacy
- Document Literacy

TENNESSEE awards more degrees, on average, per 100 Undergraduates, than the SREB Region and the nation.

Terms and Definitions

---

AUXILIARY ENTERPRISE: An entity that exists to furnish goods or services to students, faculty, or staff, and that charges a fee directly related to although not necessarily equal to, the cost of the goods or services (essentially self-supporting). Examples include: residence halls, food services, college stores, parking lots, etc.

CENSUS DATE: The date on which all degree credit headcount and full-time equated enrollment reports are generated for all Tennessee public institutions. The census date is the 14th calendar day from the beginning of classes, including the day on which classes begin.

DEGREE CREDIT: Credit that the institution designates as regular, occupational, or certificate, extension or co-op.

FULL-TIME EQUATED (FTE) ENROLLMENT: If the institution is a university, FTE enrollment is the sum of the FTE undergraduate and FTE graduate/professional enrollments. If the institution is a community college, the FTE enrollment is the total number of degree credits taken by all students divided by 15.
